GDPR Privacy Notice

Your personal data

Personal data relates to a living individual, who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 ("GDPR").

Who are we?

Alex Bienfait is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

How do we process your personal data?

The trustees of the Apollos Trust comply with the Trust's obligations under GDPR by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the legitimate purpose of delivering on the objective of the Apollos Trust as set out in its constitution. The Apollos Trust is a registered charity under number 1148017.
